

NTN Conference 2023

Highlighting Trauma Education

Keynote Speaker

James Cracknell OBE

Inspiring sportsman, athlete and adventurer

9th February 2023

Crowne Plaza, Stephenson Quarter, Newcastle NE1 3SA

NTN Conference 2023

9.00 REGISTRATION

9.30 WELCOME

Dr Laura Duffy

EM Consultant, PHEM Consultant, NTN Clinical Director

QUALITY IMPROVEMENT PRESENTATIONS

Regional Anaesthetic Skills, Looking for alternative approaches for pain management

*Krishan Nandapalan, Medical Student &
Dr Ashley Scott, ST7 Anaesthetics*

Implementing Alternative and Augmentative Communication methods for critically ill, conscious trauma patients requiring an artificial airway

Verena Sippel, Highly Specialist Speech and Language Therapist

Improving the recognition and understanding of low energy trauma in older adults

Integration of pre-hospital Frail Injured Patient Pathway into ED and rapid assessment tool

Gill Manihera, Advanced Paramedic

Dr Becky Taylor, Speciality Doctor Emergency Medicine

10.30 Coffee Break

11.00 WORKSHOP 1 (90 mins) (see options)

12.30 Lunch

13.30 KEYNOTE SPEAKER

James Cracknell OBE

Speaking about high performing team work and resilience

Prize giving for QIP and poster presentations

14.30 Coffee Break

15.00 WORKSHOP 2 (90 mins) (see options)

16.30 Close - please stay for Networking and Social opportunities!

Tweet using #NTNconference2023
hashtag throughout the day

@TraumaNorth
#NTNconference2023

NTN Conference 2023 Workshop options

WORKSHOP	FACULTY	CONTENT
Pre-hospital	Jamie Walsh, Paramedic, GNAAS Gary Shaw, Paramedic, NEAS	Mini Pre-hospital Emergency Anaesthesia Surgical Airway Front of neck access
Resuscitative Thoracotomy	Joel Dunning, Consultant Cardiothoracic Surgeon Laura Evans, Emergency Medicine Consultant	Mini thoracotomy course, hands on experience
Nursing	Nicola Lipscombe, Trauma Nurse Co-ordinator Lauren Nellins, Trauma Nurse Co-ordinator Joanne Robson, Trauma Nurse Coordinator	Major Haemorrhage protocol Managing active bleeding Using pelvic binder and splints
Older Persons Trauma	Charlotte Bates, Emergency Medicine Consultant Christopher Hawkins, Emergency Medicine Consultant	'mini HECTOR' Managing the older patients from initial triage to ongoing daily assessment. Tools from the HECTOR course
Paediatric Trauma	Mike Schofield, Emergency Medicine Consultant Claire O'Connell, Emergency Medicine Consultant Amy Tears, Paediatric Trauma Rehab co-ordinator Becky Tweddle, Paediatric Trauma Rehab co-ordinator Sarah Battle, Paediatric Trauma Co-ordinator	Acute management of children with traumatic injuries Head Injury management and rehab School Fit Notes
Rehabilitation	Laura Graham, Rehabilitation Medicine Consultant Glynis Peat, Spinal Injuries Unit Manager Nicole Hawkswell, Senior Prosthetist Ian Blain, Emergency Medicine Consultant David Millar Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist	Returning to professional sport after injury – physical and psychological Sport after spinal injury Sport after Amputation
Virtual Reality for Training	Mr David Ferguson, Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon Mr Andrew Simpson, Clinical Scientist Mr Chris Hunter, Simulation technician Mr Dan Wade Myers, Simulation technician Ms Samantha Iveson, Oxford Medical Simulators Mr Jake Smith, Lenovo	Introduction to VR, understanding and practical experience of VR application for trauma training

Please see back page for room locations

NTN Conference 2023 Floorplan

NORTHERN TRAUMA
NETWORK

City Hospitals Sunderland
Sunderland Royal Hospital
Trust Headquarters
Room 251
Kayll Road
Sunderland
SR4 7TP

traumanorth.org.uk

Tweet using #NTNconference2023
hashtag throughout the day

@TraumaNorth
#NTNconference2023